

Calendar of Events

Thursday, September 18, 2014, 7:30 p.m.

CELEBRATING SIXTY-FIVE YEARS!

Presidents, former presidents and others with tales to tell will share short stories from days spent in the historical society. We'll start with Curator Pat Zalba who has lots of entertaining recollections!

Thursday, October 16, 2014, 7:30 p.m.

WEATHER FOLKLORE

Naturalist, Jann Glove, will offer a lighthearted, informative, interactive presentation featuring an array of age old natural techniques and adages once used to predict the weather.

Thursday, November 20, 2014, 7:30 p.m.

THE PAINTINGS OF HENRY CHURCH, JR...

...and the conservation of "The Old Oaken Bucket". Jane Babinsky, great-great granddaughter of Henry Church, Jr. and Allyn Rosser, Conservator, will give a brief look at the artist, what inspired him and talk about the conservation of one of his paintings.

Saturday, December 13, 2014, 2-4 p.m.

A VICTORIAN CHRISTMAS OPEN HOUSE

Add a delightful afternoon to your Christmas celebrations. The museum will be dressed in its Christmas finery and there will be cookies, hors d'oeuvres, eggnog and other treats. For your shopping we'll have Christmas cards, books, and note cards for sale. Harpist Gina Muhl will play. Join us!

Wednesday, January 21, 2015, 11:30 a.m.

ANNUAL SOUPS AND BREADS LUNCHEON

We'll be at the Atrium at Hamlet Village. Setup 11:30, lunch 12:00, program to follow. Mike Fath, Trustee, South Newbury Union Chapel, will speak on the many national figures who came here to speak inspired by the progressiveness of this community.

Thursday, February 19, 2015, 6:00 p.m.

THE ANNUAL MEMBERS ONLY POT LUCK DINNER

At the Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall. Bring your favorite dish or dessert to share and brush up on your Chagrin Falls Trivia!

Thursday, March 19, 2015, 7:30 p.m.

MIDWIVES, WITCHES AND THE DEVIL'S FAMILIARS

Author and historian, Sam Thomas, will discuss witches and witchcraft in 17th century England and the role of midwives in detecting and prosecuting them.

Thursday, April 16, 2015, 7:30 p.m.

LINCOLN'S LAST DAY

Member Frank Kanzinger will focus on the events of that last day as he follows the paths that brought Lincoln and Booth together in Ford's Theatre, on that frightful April 14, 1865 evening.

Wednesday, May 20, 2015, 8:45 a.m.

FIELD TRIP TO KENT

Travel by motor coach to Kent, Oh, to visit the Kent State University Museum exhibit "THE GREAT WAR, Women and Fashion in a World at War, 1912-1922". We'll tour the Kent Historical Society, have lunch, and visit one other historic building TBD. Watch for details in March.

Programs are presented at the Chagrin Falls Historical Society
Shute Memorial Building
21 Walnut Street
Chagrin Falls, OH 44022
unless otherwise noted.

All programs are open to the public except for the Annual Potluck Dinner, which is for members only.

For further information on programs, please read our monthly newsletter or visit our website:
www.chagrinhistorical.org, phone the Historical Society at 440-247-4695 or contact the Program Chairwoman, Anne Burr
at 440-241-2678

EXECUTIVE BOARD

President	John Bourisseau
Vice Pres., Programs	Anne Burr
Vice Pres., Membership	Jo Roeder
Treasurer	Carolyn Sihler
Ass't Treasurer	Bill Hamann
Recording Secretary	Gretchen Hamann
Curator	Pat Zalba
Corresponding Secretary	Joyce Teeft
Librarian	Laura Gorretta
Staff: Admin. Assistant	Jane Babinsky

HERITAGE FUND TRUSTEES

Bill Hamann
Judi Lawrence
Bob Royer
Carolyn Sihler, Treasurer

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Jo Roeder
Joyce Teeft
Arline Moore
Anita Duncan
Don Barriball

CHAIRPERSONS

Buildings and Grounds	Don Barriball
Website & Facebook	John Bourisseau
Hospitality	Program Com.
Liaison with A.R.B.	Beth Skeel
Newsletter Editor	John Bourisseau
Oral Histories	Arline Moore
Photography	Zo Sykora
Publicity	Diana Nazelli
Scholarships	Kate Adler

CELEBRATING
65
YEARS!